NOTICE

Regular meals, luncheons, sandwiches served. Breakfast, dinner and supper. Mrs. Freeman, opposite Blacksmith Shop, Lomita.

TORRANCE LODGE NO. 447

F. & A. M.
Meetings at Lomita Hall

Saturday, July 23, 1921, at 2:00 p. m., five Third Degrees. Supper for all Master Masons at 6 o'clock at the Hall. All Master Masons cordially invited.

"I suppose you have high ambitions for your boy?"
"Well, I wouldn't say that exactly, but I do hope that he won't turn out to be the male assistant to a female dancing teacher."

If it wasn't for hope the heart would break, as the old lady said when she buried the seventh husband and looked anxiously among the funeral crowd for another.

Any time a married man gets home late and finds the dinner is cold, his wife is sure to make it warm for him.

Why sits the maiden sad and pale amid the glittering throng? Why bears her face the marks of pain, while heedless of the song? More poignant are the pangs she feels—she suffers from a corn.

LOMITA FIRST

ONCE IN A WHILE you hear someone say: "Good enough for this town." And worse, you hear occasionally, "Too good for this town."

Some of us, in a moment of discouragement may have been guilty of such an expression but we do not believe that any one really means anything like that.

Lomita is going to be pretty much what you and the rest of us make it. It is hardly likely that some stranger is going to come in and work any miracle for us. If Lomita deteriorates into a mediocre little town, we will be to blame—all of us. If Lomita is going to take first rank among clean, progressive and beautiful small towns, it is because all of us pull together for a better town. And it won't be much of a job to put Lomita in the first row of extremely attractive towns. It is pretty close up now. If not, let's put it there. If it is there, let's keep it there.

Ready for Your VACATION?

MAY WE HELP YOU
WITH YOUR PLANS?

The Agent of the Pacific Electric Railway nearest you has, or will procure for you information of any one or all of the fifty or more Mountain Camps or Resorts reached by our lines or through its connections, and to most of them he can ticket you through.

The resorts of the Sierra Madre, San Bernardino and San Jacinto Mountains are not surpassed anywhere for beauty, comfort and reasonableness of charges; in fact, you lose none of the vacation joys and save money by visiting those near at home. Investigate them.

It is the lot of man to err at times, as the drunken man said when he mistook the hen house for his bedroom.

Somebody says a wife should be like roast lamb—tender and well-dressed. A bachelor adds, "and without any sauce."
